Democratic Platform.

The Democratic party in National Convents assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence patriotism, discrimination and justice of the scople; standing upon the Constitution as the undiction and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranteeing the liberties of the critizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war, or the voluntar action of the Southern States in Constitutiona Conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do with the return of peace; de-abroad; the assection of American nationalis ty, constitutional liberty and individual right and the maintenance of the rights of natural ized cifizens against the obsolete doctrine of im powers to punish them for alleged crimes com-mitted beyond their jurisdiction. [Applause.] In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the radical party for its disregard of right and the unparalleled oppression and tyranity which have marked its career. After a most solemn and unanimous pledge of bot uses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, If his repeatedly violated the most sacred pledges under which alone rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory; instead of restoring the Union it has so far as in its power dissolved it and subjected ten States in time of profound peace to military despotism and negro supremacy. It has nullified the right of trial by jury. It has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty. It has overthrown the freedom and and of speech. It has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials, and secret Star Chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tri-bunals, it has disroganded in times of peace t e right of the people to be free from searche ees, and even the private rooms of individuals and seized their private papers and letters with tablished a system of spics and official espio age to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare now to resort. It has abolished the right of appeals in important Constitutions questions to the supreme judicial tribuna and threatens to curtail or destroy its origina has been subjected to the most atrocious calun nies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President Its corruption and extravagance have exhas stripped the President of his Constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet.
